Dr. Dutta's involvement with Hatgobindapur and its surrounding areas went back to pre-independence days when he was involved to bring about the much-awaited socio-economic development of this rural area. To commemorate his work and contribution, a decision had been taken in a mass meeting in 1983 to establish a general degree college in the name of Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta and thereafter Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta Smriti Mahavidyalaya was established in 1996, as a State Govt. Aided College affiliated to The University of Burdwan.

Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta :

Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta, the younger brother of Warrior Monk Swami Vivekananda was born in Kolkata (Calcutta) in September, 4, 1880. Bhupendra Nath was a noted revolutionary, political thinker, sociologist and foremost figure among the Indian intellectuals. He was associated with Rishi Aurobindo and the Jugantar Group of revolutionaries. Bhupendra Nath Dutta joined the All India Revolutionary Society and his revolutionary consciousness was expressed in his writings in the weekly Jugantar and Sonar Bangla for which the British authorities jailed him. At the end of his imprisonment he sailed to America and after graduating from the New York University in 1912, he earned a Masters' Degree from the Brown University in 1914. When he visited Southern Europe in 1915, he came across other Indian revolutionaries and was elected as the Secretary of the Berlin Committee for the period of 1916-1918. Simultaneously, with his revolutionary activities, he carried out academic research in Sociology and Anthropology that earned him his doctorate degree from Hamburg University in 1923. This immensely gifted revolutionary scholar authored a number of books that included among others Indian Social System (3 volumes), "Dialectics of Hindu Ritualism" and "Agony of the Age". He was regarded as the most illustrious figure of the Bengal Renaissance and a dedicated nationalist. A firm believer in socialism, he had propounded the theory of the emergence of feudalism in the Indian context of the early medieval period. He had worked extensively on the nature of land holding in India and particularly was passionate about the land economy of Bengal that found reflection in his celebrated work entitled, "Dialectics of Land-Economics of India." Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta was involved in championing the cause of farmers and agricultural workers. One of the Presidents of Bengal Provincial Kisan Sabha, he was elected President twice of All India Trade Union Congress. Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta dedicated his life for the cause of socio-economic advancement of the rural poor and the under-privileged. He passed away at the age of 81, on December 25, 1961.
